

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2260 - SB 2273

January 30, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Department of Correction to conduct an orientation for inmates to be released from confinement on relevant post-release or parole issues such as restoration of citizenship, services relating to education, employment, family, and child support.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Department of Correction currently has a pre-release program that addresses most of these issues and can be modified within existing budgeted resources to add any specified services that are not currently provided.
